PENSION UPDATE

ONTARIO TEACHERS' FEDERATION PENSION FORUM & ONTARIO TEACHERS' PENSION PLAN ANNUAL MEETING

PENSION FORUM

In conjunction with the Spring Board of Governors' Meeting each year, the Ontario Teachers' Federation holds a pension education session. Because of space limitations, the Pension Forum is open to a maximum of 100 members.

This year's event will take place at the Courtyard by Marriott Hotel, 475 Yonge Street, Toronto, on Friday, April 3, 2009 beginning at 10:00 a.m. Speakers this year include: Hugh Mackenzie, a noted economist who works frequently with the Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives and who is an OTF appointed member of the Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan Board; Malcolm Hamilton, worldwide partner with Marsh Mercer Kroll and a frequent contributor to these events; and Jim Leech, President and CEO of the Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan.

Members wishing to attend the Pension Forum should contact Rita Chow at the Ontario Teachers' Federation (1-800-268-7061 or 416-966-3424) to register. The registration fee is $70.

ONTARIO TEACHERS' PENSION PLAN ANNUAL MEETING

Each year, the Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan holds an annual meeting to talk directly with its members about the past year in review. Jim Leech, President and CEO, Eileen Mercier, Chair of the OTPP Board of Directors, and other senior members of the Plan's administration will present the 2008 Annual Report and will engage in the question and answer period to follow.

This year the OTPP's Annual Meeting will take place on Friday, April 3, 2009 at The Carlu, 444 Yonge Street, Toronto. The event will begin at 5:00 p.m. and will be simultaneously webcast on the OTPP website at www.otpp.com.

Members who wish to attend the event in person should register at www.otpp.com. You will find the link for registration on the lower left of the Plan's home page.
