Everyone Is Able is a new resource about abilities/disabilities that consists of a DVD and a CD containing a Guidebook. The project is designed to increase teacher and student sensitivity to issues around ability/disability. The DVD is divided into seven chapters that are accompanied by lessons at the Primary, Junior, and Intermediate levels; as well as a professional development component for educators for each chapter. The resource includes curriculum links; practical applications for engaging students and educators; and information on how to foster social action in classrooms, schools, and communities.
