

READ ETFO'S NEW POSITION PAPER

PROMISES UNFULFILLED

Addressing the Special Education Crisis in Ontario

Special education in Ontario is in trouble. Learn how our uncomfortable history, broken policy, and chronic underfunding have led to today's classroom challenges.

Our children deserve better. ETFO is advocating for the Ontario Ministry of Education to fix special education and improve publicly funded education for all children through the 27 recommendations in this report, based on research, statistics, expert analysis, and the voices of ETFO members.

Find the full report (and more) on our website

Inequities for children with disabilities persist

Lack of special education supports for English language learners

Increased school violence because of unmet student needs

Limited resources and support services

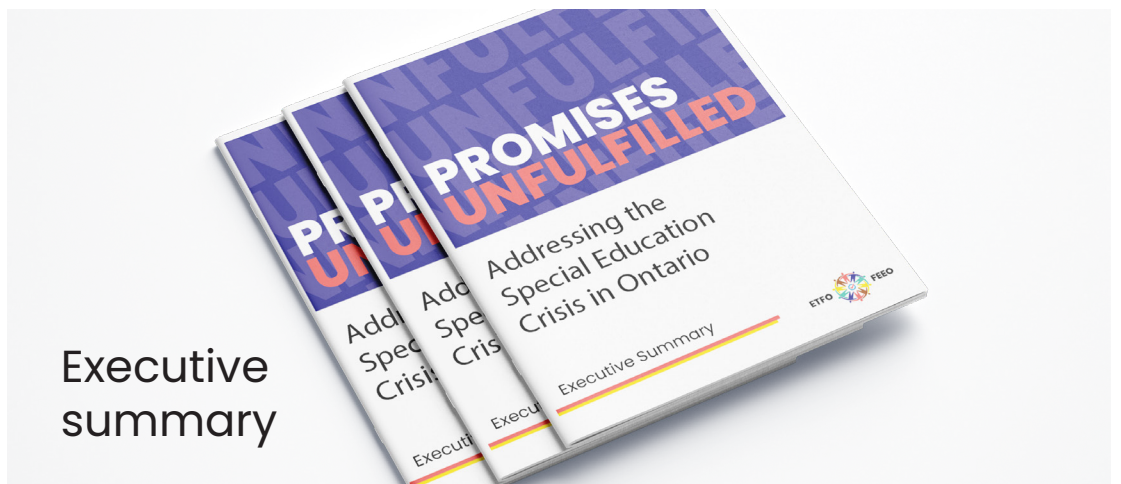

Barriers to accessing programs

No supports in the inclusion model

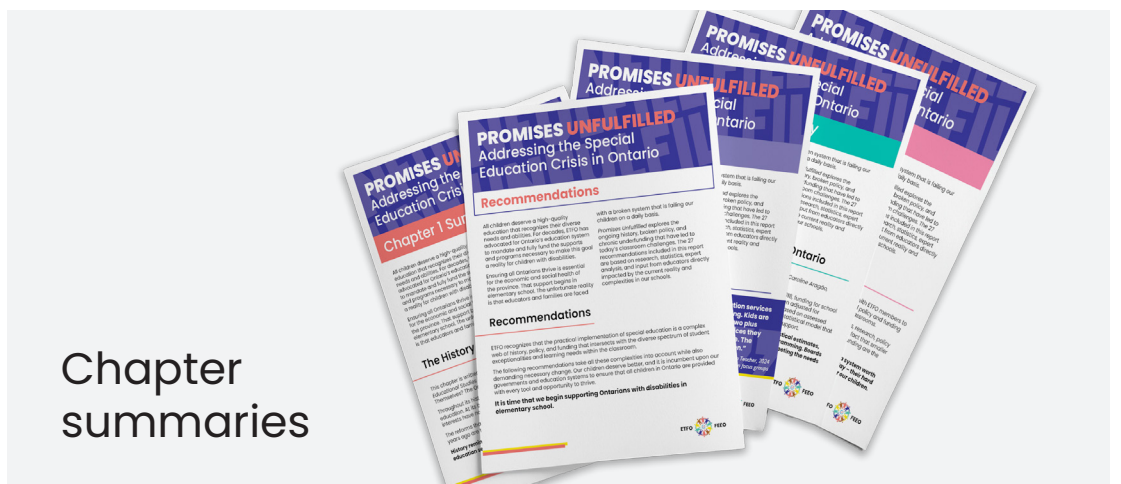

Lack of early interventions

Full report

Executive summary

Chapter summaries

Find out how to take action at BuildingBetterSchools.ca

