

DECEMBER 9, 2021
VIRTUAL EVENT

WOMEN ADDRESSING GENDER-BASED WORKPLACE VIOLENCE

This conference will support the leadership development of women members as they build their knowledge and advocacy for addressing workplace violence to ensure our workplaces are safer and healthier.

Who Should Attend?

Any woman who is interested in building their knowledge and skills to become a leader in addressing workplace violence can participate. Participants will be empowered to exercise their health and safety rights in the workplace, to ensure our workplaces are safer and healthier.

Registration Fee is $30

Register by November 22
at events.etfo.org

Release time and dependent care
paid per ETFO provincial guidelines.

For more information contact Tracie Edward, tedward@etfo.org or Elizabeth Mitchell, emitchell@etfo.org

WOMEN ADDRESSING GENDER-BASED WORKPLACE VIOLENCE

Keynote Speaker:

Marie Clarke Walker

Former Secretary-Treasurer,
Canadian Labour Congress

Conference Topics

The topics at this conference will include:

- Keynote Speaker:
Marie Clarke Walker, Human Rights and Social Justice Activist (formerly of the Canadian Labour Congress).
- Assertiveness Skills Training:
Bo Yih Thom, MSW, RSW, RP.
- The Normalization of Gender-Based Violence in the Education Sector:
Dr. Christine Bruckert, University of Ottawa and Tuulia Law, York University.

Selection Criteria

A limited number of spots are available for this conference. Participants will be selected with consideration to selection criteria listed below:

- Women who self-identify from designated groups.
- Selection by random draw from within each local, region and/or member group represented in the applications.