

GENERATIONBLACK

YOU'RE NEXT

Saturday October 1, 2022

9:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Hyatt Regency Toronto, 370 King St. West

The Elementary Teachers' Federation of Ontario in collaboration with Black community organizations and educational stakeholders is hosting Generation Black: You're Next!

Generation Black: You're Next! is a public symposium that will address the urgency for recruiting Black teachers and the necessity for retaining Black educators to improve the representation of Black people in education.

Keynote Speaker:
Wes "Maestro" Williams
Moderator/Host:
Nastassia Subban

PANEL DISCUSSIONS

Theoretical Framework

- Dr. Andrew Allen, University of Windsor
- Dr. Andrew Campbell, University of Toronto
- Dr. Carl James, York University
- Marva Wisdom, Black Experience Project

Black Excellence

- Wesberlyne Avril, Teacher Candidate
- Jhonel Morvan, Superintendent of Education
- Tyrone Russell, Teacher
- Pierrette Walker-Ennis, Vice Principal

Parent, Student and Community Voices

- Rihanna Harris, Student Activist
- Stephen Mensah, Executive Director, Toronto Youth Cabinet
- Natasha Shakespeare, President and Founder, Parents Against Racism Simcoe Chapter

In partnership and collaboration with: Federation of Black Canadians (FBC), Network for Advancement of Black Communities (NABC), Ontario Alliance of Black School Educators (ONABSE), Ontario Principals Council (OPC) and Ontario Teachers' Federation (OTF).

A variety of seminars will be offered.

To register and for more information please visit:

etfo.ca/generation-black

