

2022 Annual Meeting Caucuses Monday, August 15, 2022

French as a Second Language Caucus – 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

The caucus will discuss resolutions and share resources which pertain to FSL teachers. The caucus will clarify the intent of resolutions, share support material, and provide an opportunity to network with other members in the FSL role. This is a one-hour caucus that is open to all ETFO members.

DECE (Designated Early Childhood Educators) Caucus – 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

This caucus will focus on issues that pertain to DECE members. The caucus will discuss political, social and cultural implications that relate to the Annual Meeting resolutions, strategize responses to resolutions, share support material, and provide an opportunity to network with other members in the DECE role. This is a two-hour caucus that is open to DECE delegates and alternates only.

Occasional Teacher Caucus – 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

The caucus will focus on issues that pertain to occasional teachers. The caucus will discuss political, social, and cultural implications that relate to the Annual Meeting resolutions, clarify the intent of resolutions, strategize responses to resolutions, share support material, and provide an opportunity to network with other occasional teacher members. This is a two-hour caucus that is open to occasional teacher delegates and alternates only.

Women's Caucus – 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Come engage and learn about issues that affect women in our Federation and in a global context. We will be discussing resolutions, strategizing, and mobilizing so that the voices of ETFO's incredible women are heard. Join us to network with other ETFO women and leave feeling inspired, invigorated, and ready to make a difference at this year's Annual Meeting. The caucus will discuss political, social, and cultural implications that relate to the Annual Meeting resolutions, clarify the intent of resolutions, strategize responses to resolutions, share support material, and provide an opportunity to network with other members within a designated group. This is a two-hour caucus that is open to all ETFO members that identify as women.

Black Members and Allies Caucus – 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

This caucus will discuss concerns around Anti-Black Racism and will engage members and allies with a guest speaker, panel discussion, and question and answer period. The caucus will discuss political, social and cultural implications that relate to the Annual Meeting resolutions, strategize responses to resolutions, share support material, and provide an opportunity to network with other members within a designated group. This is a two-hour caucus that is open to all ETFO members.

Northern Caucus – 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

This caucus will focus on issues pertaining to northern board members. The caucus will discuss political, social, and cultural implications that relate to the Annual Meeting resolutions, clarify the intent of resolutions, strategize responses to resolutions, share support material, and provide an opportunity to network with other members from northern boards. This is a two-hour caucus that is open only to members from the following boards – Algoma, James Bay, Keewatin-Patricia, Lakehead, Near North, Ontario North East, Rainbow, Rainy River and Superior Greenstone.

